FemiMist Artemisia Siblings Spritzer

A combination of both wild foraged mugwort & wild foraged sage. Mugwort, a sleep aid, rage cooler, soothes nerves to bring relief to potentially stressful events. Often associated with dreamworld. Unearthing our true deep, often subconscious beliefs systems & inner workings via our dreamscape, that's Mugwort! Special ally to the pelvis where stiffness may reside or congested creative energy sits, Mugwort connects our imagination to cosmos for motion & growth.

Wild Sage opens the heart with aromatic oils that flow from their foliage by sun's kiss. The vibrant yet soft, otherworldly blue-green hued leaves dazzle the eyeballs. Wild Sage introduces one to their path & deepens relationship to their unique map. Throws a protective netting round the auric field when needed; lends to comfort while working on embodiment. Allows you to safely be in your inner world while walking your daily scape. Enhances the individual's ability to be here on earth at this epoch, so that we may come together, share our soul gifts, & better align with individual's HeartSong/Purpose.
